Entrepreneur in Progress General Information

Welcome
"Entrepreneurs in Progress"

There is no doubt, students have amazing business ideas. The business world has many successful stories of entrepreneurs that started in their 20's: Bill Gates (Microsoft), Steve Jobs (Apple), Phil Knight (Nike), Mark Zuckerberg (Facebook), Michael Dell (Dell Computers). All of them started with just an idea, back then they were "Entrepreneurs in Progress".

EnterPRize is looking for those future entrepreneurs who wish to, in the near or distant future, establish their own business or are simply curious about the field of entrepreneurship. You just need a business idea to step in the starting line, our 2008 EnterPRize Business Idea Competition. How good is your idea? What do you need to take it further? Who do you need in your team to make it happen? Being able to answer these questions is just part of the reward you will get by participating.

If you want to know the latest about marketing and creativity you have to look into IDEO. IDEO is the creator of the Apple mouse and many other products. They use a unique way of lateral thinking that is not standard in traditional marketing. If you want to have a better understanding about this revolutionary way of creativity you have to watch “The Ten Faces of Innovation” aired on ABC in 1999. You can purchase it at http://abcnewsstore.go.com. Or you can buy and read “The Ten Faces of Innovation” both by Tom Kelley. I do recommend you pursue these resources if you want to improve your marketing skills.

Aprende a escribir! Cada vez que escribes "bueno" me dan ganas de patearte. Es como si entrevistaras a alguien en la calle y después lo publicaras en el periódico.

Para tu plan de mercadeo te recomiendo que ingreses a la dirección www.mplans.com. En esta página encontrarás planes de mercadeo de otras compañías. Usa los de referencia para tu plan. Si después de todo esto todavía no entiendes cómo hacer un plan de mercadeo, pide ayuda a una diversidad de compañías. Usa el nombre de la compañía al tuyo. No podrás acceder a todos los planes, pero a algunos sí. Te recomiendo que seas más flexible y que los negocios no toleran ese estilo de redacción.
