Class Policies

Prof. Wilson Rivera

Academic Misconduct: Any academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Dishonest behavior, as commonly understood, includes exam cheating or plagiarism, and presenting a project that is not your own work. Academic dishonesty will result in a zero for the exam or project assignment, and for an aggravated incident, failure (F) in the course and initiation of University disciplinary action.

Attendance: Attendance to lectures, exams and project presentations is mandatory. A student missing more than 5 lectures during the semester fails the class. Medical excuses should have printed the name of the physician, the office address and the telephone number. The instructor may verify the veracity of any excuse at their own discretion.

Late Project Assignments: Late assignments will be accepted for a maximum of four days after the due date. For each day your assignment is late, 25% of the total possible points will be deducted from your score.

Grading System: The range of quantifiable is defined as A → 90-100; B → 80-89; C → 70-79; D → 60-69; F → 0-59
